PERFECT ATTENDANCE

Let us Remember,

Lest we Forget...

"...that from these honored dead we take increased devotion..."

'To Live in the Hearts We Leave Behind'

"LET US REMEMBER LEST WE FORGET." THESE ARE THE WORDS OF THE FAMOUS POET, RUDYARD KIPLING MANY YEARS AGO. TIME HAS NOT CHANGED THE MEANING OF THESE THOUGHT-PROVOKING WORDS, AND THEY STILL STIR US TO SEARCH OUR MEMORIES. WHAT MEMORIES DO WE HAVE FROM OUR YEARS AT CENTRAL HIGH? GOOD, HAPPY, GAY, MEMORIES THEY WILL BE IF WE MADE THE MOST OF OUR MANY OPPORTUNITIES IN CENTRAL, OUR STEPPING-OFF POINT INTO THE WORLD OF TOMORROW.

ATHLETICS 49-50

Explaining a project before the class gives boys courage to face future difficulties. How well we remember our classes!

Friendships spring from close associations and common experiences at Central. Happy memories of friends we know!

SCHOOL DAYS, SCHOOL DAYS! MANY EVENTS COME INTO OUR MINDS WHEN WE THINK OF THE PAST SCHOOL YEARS. OH! THE MEMORIES OF THOSE CLASSES, TESTS, HOMEWORK, AND MORE TESTS! WE BECAME BETTER FRIENDS WITH OUR TEACHERS AND OTHER CLASSMATES. OUR FRIENDS PLAYED AN IMPORTANT PART IN OUR HIGH SCHOOL LIFE. THE

School Days! They Were Fun, Weren't They?

MANY DANCES THROUGHOUT THE YEAR WERE GATHERING PLACES FOR FRIENDS AND FRIENDS-TO-BE. OUR PEP SESSIONS! THEY WERE FUN, WEREN'T THEY? OUR YEARS AT CENTRAL WERE BOUND TO LEAVE US EACH WITH A FAVORITE TEACHER—MAYBE AN ENGLISH TEACHER, OR A MATHEMATICS TEACHER, NO MATTER WHAT SUBJECT—A TEACHER THAT BECAME A FRIEND TO US AND WILL BE SURE TO HAVE A PAGE IN OUR BOOK OF MEMORIES.

WHO CAN EVER FORGET OUR Faculty

THERE ARE MANY TEACHERS AROUND SCHOOL AND FOR MANY DIFFERENT REASONS. THE MAIN REASON SEEMS TO BE "US," THE STUDENTS. WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY GIVES A DEFINITION OF "TEACHER," BUT AT CENTRAL WE PUT THEM IN THIS CATEGORY: UNUSUAL PEOPLE WITH ENOUGH PATIENCE AND UNDERSTANDING TO LAST THROUGH FIVE DAYS OF CONFUSION. THAT'S OUR FACULTY.

'School Parents' Give

ADVICE is something we all need at one time or another. But we don't have to worry, for we know whom to see. In the classrooms, in offices, here and there about the buildings our "school parents" smooth the way and make easier our problems. Classroom teachers help us every hour of the day. The deans are always ready to give us advice on almost any problem that confronts us. The guidance director will give us advice on choosing our vocations, and getting along with people in general. The principal is always willing to tell us anything we don't know or understand about our school. After school is over and everyone has gone home, a faithful few remain and clean our building for the next day—the janitors and custodians and matrons. And what would we do lunch period if we didnt have our kitchen help? We live entirely too far to go home at noon! These and other adults are constantly on the job making our school a better and cleaner place. Adults, we salute you!

TOP RIGHT: Miss Meribah Ingham and service workers work every day. Schedules, helping with attendance, and talking to troubled students are all a part of Miss Ingham's daily routine.

CENTER RIGHT: Administrators of the Vocational Adult Evening School are Marion Kamp, clerk; Mr. Allen F. Haueisen, coordinator of distributive education; Mr. Charles H. Feistkorn, vocational coordinator; Mr. James Henry Chappell, director; and Martha Berning, secretary.

BELOW: Mrs. Winifred Ormerod, our treasurer, checks book money, keeps the schools books, is in charge of all bank money daily.

Our Faculty also Have Hearts

HUMAN BEINGS teach at Central. Our teachers know how to be sympathetic in the classroom and how to enjoy good times together at social affairs. Highlights of the faculty social year are the fall supper, the spring breakfast, and the final teachers' meeting in June, when retiring teachers are honored. Miss Catherine Jackson is the chairman of the faculty social committee.

Home Joins School

"The Family and the Community Each Shapes the Other—The PTA Serves Both" was the general theme for 1956-1957 of the Central PTA. Parents, teachers, and students enjoyed themselves at the family potluck in the cafeteria, October 3. Some of the other highlights of the year were Back-to-School Night, in which the parents sat in the seats of their sons and daughters, Citizens Education Council Meeting, Founder's Day Observance, in which honors to past PTA presidents were presented, panels, candy sale, teas, Carnival, Parent Education Meeting, and the installation of officers. Mr. Cleon Fleck showed colored slides of his recent trip to Europe, at the February meeting. The Parent Education group, formerly the study group, had as a topic, "Are Central High School's Facilities Adequate?"

MERLE J. ABBETT
Superintendent of Schools, 1932-52

We Remember: True Champion of Youth

"WHAT IS wrought in marble and stone will decay but what is engraved in the mind and spirit of boys and girls will continue to grow and grow, even to eternity." Such was the belief of Mr. Merle J. Abbett, Hoosier schoolmaster and superintendent, who was keenly interested in the "goings on" at Central. Teachers and pupils of Central paid a farewell tribute to Mr. Abbett, one morning a year ago, by recalling his many attributes and achievements. Among his many honors, Mr. Abbett was listed in "Who's Who" for his career as an educator. More than that, he has won a place in the hearts of both his many associates and the youth whom he championed.

Honored Teachers: How Well We Remember

Housekeeper, Traveler, Poet
ROSZA O. TONKEL

Counselor, Professor, Friend
WILLIS RICHARDSON

"I AM enjoying my retirement very much," was the statement of Miss Rosza Tonkel, who retired from the Central faculty last year after 29 years of teaching Central students. The greatest luxury of retirement is that Miss Tonkel and her father now have time to do the things they never had time for earlier. Miss Tonkel is very much interested in comparative religion and plans to travel extensively in Europe. We honor Miss Tonkel and wish her the very best of happy experiences.

BACK TO COLLEGE! After teaching at Central from 1923 to 1956, and heading the Department of Social Science, Mr. Richardson returned to college to assume the post as counselor for men at Earlham College. In his new job, Mr. Richardson has varied duties, one of which is to teach a course in the History of the Old Northwest. During his teaching years at Central, Mr. Richardson was active in school functions and will long be remembered for his interest in the welfare of his pupils.

AMAZING, WHAT WE LEARN IN Classes

CLASSES . . . . . WHAT MEMORIES COME TO MIND OF OUR DAYS AS FRESHMEN TRYING TO FIND OUR WAY TO OUR CLASSES! REMEMBER HOW WE RAN TO BE IN HOME ROOM BEFORE THE TARDY BELL RANG? WE HAVE GONE THROUGH THE HALLS FROM CLASS TO CLASS TO LEARN ALL THE ESSENTIAL THINGS THAT WE WILL USE LATER AS CITIZENS OF THE COMMUNITY.

;alskdjfgh...really no mystery

"I WONDER if I will ever learn to type?" is often the thought that runs through the mind of a beginning typist as she slowly and not-too-surely picks out the first few letters on that strange machine—the typewriter. As she progresses in typing, the words come easier—20, 40, 60, and even 100 words a minute. Along with typing, shorthand, clerical practice, business arithmetic, sales, junior business, business law, and consumer's education are taught. A student on the stenographic branch would take shorthand, typing and clerical practice to prepare herself for a secretarial job, while a clerical branch student would take typing, filing, business arithmetic and would study general office procedures. The general branch offers to the students the opportunity to learn to meet people, how to sell, and how to get along with the clerks and consumers that they will some day meet. Thus CHS students are taught to face all the problems that arise each day in the business world that they will soon enter.

MISS MARIE LEBAMOFF shows to Hattie Fowlkes, Robert Harmeyer, Arthur Barnes, and Carol Ginther, pupils of her sales class, the fine quality of new plastic dishes, which are used for demonstration.

Art Enriches Life

PAINT, pencil, metal, clay! The art class students certainly make good use of these many mediums. Students of the first year class, for example, have made marionettes and also linoleum prints to use upon cloth. Some of the advanced classes are working in crafts, and purses are the results of some of their labor. Art classes have produced many students that will long be remembered. Taking art is an experience to enrich one's life.

Is Math Important?

FORTY-SIX and forty-six is ninety-two. Wouldn't it be awful if we couldn't figure? There is nothing like a good old-fashioned math problem to start the wheels rolling. In Central's Mathematics Department there are nine part and full-time teachers. There are about eight hundred students taking mathematics at Central. There are four tracks or lanes in mathematics designed to fit the speed of the students. A new course was added this year. It is intermediate algebra designed to prepare advanced algebra students for college algebra.

English? We See Many Facets!

C-A-T, G-I-R-L, H-O-U-S-E! and so it goes as the young pupil advances in his knowledge of the meaning and spelling of the American language. In English classes throughout the school, pupils learn correct spelling, punctuation, grammar, and the background of our American heritage. Such great classics as Ivanhoe, by Sir Walter Scott, and Pride and Prejudice, by Jane Austen, and literary works as John Milton's Areopagitica and Chaucer's Canterbury Tales give the English pupil a peek into the past through these writers' pens. Also, by way of the pen, he gains much historical background for our principles of daily living. Motivated compositions call for weekly "themes," practice paragraphs, and, for advanced pupils, research papers carefully constructed. So "English" is many things—speaking, writing, reading with comprehension, understanding great writers, and grasping philosophy of good living. Also in the field of language and arts, French and Latin are offered to those students interested in foreign language, customs, and traditions.

THERE IT IS—Earl Jones points out a scene of the rugged West to Larry Anspach and Patsy Watson, but there seems to be some debate between Tom Rutherford and Alice Ramsey. This project is based on the book, Behind the Ranges, as studied in Miss Jackson's class.

Rattle Those Bones!

SKELETONS, models of human body parts, and health charts greet visitors to Central's health classes. Health is a required subject for graduation because a broadened knowledge of health will aid in success and well-being. Movies and slides, as well as text books and tests, are used in the study of the health and safety for the human body. Varied topics include germs, mental illness, driving, organs of the body, all relating to health problems and better living.

Strange World? Yes!

GUIDED MISSILES, atomic power, mechanical brains, and all our modern creations, such as television, are products of the strange world of science. In the science classes at Central, pupils are taught the basic fundamentals of what makes up this scientific world, in such classes as biology, chemistry, physical geography, physics, meteorology. Many interesting things are done in class and the pupils think of experiments in chemistry and the dissecting of animals in biology as a part of everyday happenings.

It's 'Sew' Easy!

WHETHER IT'S stitching and hemming to make clothes or learning to get along with your family, our Home Economics Department can be of some service. In Home Economics 1, many pupils are taught to sew, skirts, bermudas, and dresses. Beautifully done are some of the products. The girls sew not only for themselves but also for brothers and sisters at home. In Home Economics 4, the cooking class, the groups must cook three breakfasts, three lunches, and three dinners. Planning the menu, and cooking the meals are a good experience for the girls. Next year, with the inauguration of the Freshman Division plan, all freshman girls will experience home economics and homemaking training.

Industrial Groups Develop Special Skills

AMONG the various courses offered at Central, industrial arts and vocational arts are among the best. This program helps students taking the courses to gain knowledge, which in turn in their later years of life will make them skilled craftsmen. Handling tools is an art for these skilled shop boys. In our shop laboratories, our boys learn much about automation and modern practices in courses of industrial arts. In auto the boys can learn the anatomy of a car, which enables the boys to save money by servicing their own cars, instead of taking them to garages. Machine shop gives the boys knowledge for accuracy of working on machines for factory jobs. Welding enables the boys to learn how to fasten 85 per cent of today's metals together, in two kinds of welding, electric and gasoline torches. Electricity comes in handy in our homes and vocational life. In drafting boys learn how to read blue prints and draw parts for machines and other objects. These boys in later life help plan our large skyscrapers. And in wood shop boys learn the art of making fine furniture as a skill. Central has the largest and most complete industrial arts courses to offer boys to prepare them for specialized jobs.

Artisans of the Future

A WIDE selection of vocational training subjects is offered at Central to prepare students for the future needs of the world. For example, one of the projects of the woodworking classes was to make candle holders for a church. Two or three classes contributed their time and did a fine job. In the past years, 25 boys of Central drafting pupils have placed in the Henry Ford National Competition Contest. The contest is held for boys who wish to enter a project to be judged nationally. In electricity shop the boys make miniature radios and other projects.

Opportunity Unlimited

PUPILS IN our ungraded rooms may go as far as they wish or are able to go. Disabilities in reading and math are most common, so much remedial work is given in these areas. In addition, pupils study citizenship, health, and shop. If they stay in school and if their progress warrants, they will take classes in regular high school work. They will be transferred to other home rooms and may graduate, as many have done. As in all classes, poor attendance and emotional instability are limiting factors to the pupil so affected.

Speech for Everyday

"QUIET, OR I'LL lower the boom!" This is a familiar cry in Mr. James McFadden's speech classes. Once in a while when the class is extra enthusiastic, Mr. McFadden will lower the dreaded "boom" and then—talk at your own risk! Speech is a very interesting course. There are numerous fields in which a student may major. There are many speech contests to enter and try your hand at competing against the speakers from other schools.

Social Scientists Learn by Travel

AROUND THE world in 50 minutes! No, this isn't a new movie; this is the Social Science Department of Central. Fifty minutes spent in any of these classes, such as U.S. History, World History, Indiana History, Sociology, Government, or Economics, is indeed like a trip around the world. The mode of transportation used by the students is our classrooms, and they are piloted by our teachers. The textbooks that we use act as charts to steer us. The Social Science Department is indeed a large one with approximately 700 students taking one or more of the courses offered. Our studies of social science give us the background of this and many other countries, and this knowledge we should try to put to good use by being better citizens of our country. Our journeys are not always to far away and distant lands; some of our trips take us to our own courthouse, post office, or other places of interest. No matter where, we enjoyed them and learned much about the functions of our governmental units.

TIMELY TOPIC—The subject of segregation is being discussed in Mr. Still's sociology class. Clifford Green exercises the right to express his opinion, while others of the circle await their turns.

NONE ALIKE! OUR 1400 Students

"FRIENDS MAKE FRIENDS!" SO SAID THE REV. JOHN R. GUNN. HAVE WE MADE FRIENDS DURING OUR YEARS AT CENTRAL? WHO CAN TELL WHAT LIES AHEAD FOR US AND OUR FRIENDS? MAYBE THEY WILL RISE TO POSITIONS OF GREAT HEIGHT, MAYBE NOT, BUT WE CAN ALWAYS SAY, "WE MET THEM AT CENTRAL HIGH."

Best Citizens, 1957 . . .

BEST GIRL
Margaret Nelson

AN HONOR highly treasured at Central is to be chosen Best Girl or Best Boy Citizen. They are chosen by the student body from qualifications of leadership, citizenship, and clean living. Their names adorn the Doenges Trophy.

APRIL 11, a day to be remembered! Many reactions were felt by the students receiving the National Honor Society pins. These students are chosen by the faculty on the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service, and they must be in the upper third of their class. The four-year honor roll was also announced at this assembly.

Oh! For the Life of a Senior!

RIGHT: At the Senior Banquet, Jan. 16, for the Class of 1957, Gene Aurand, Carl Roembke, Bob Hoops, Bob Deck, Judy Nuzum, Phyllis Kerr, and Tanya Zinchenko, seniors, bring back memories as they present a Sophomore Carnival skit.

BELOW: Connie Geiger and Carl Roembke wish each other well in the Senior Class election campaign. They opposed each other for the vice-presidency, won by Carl.

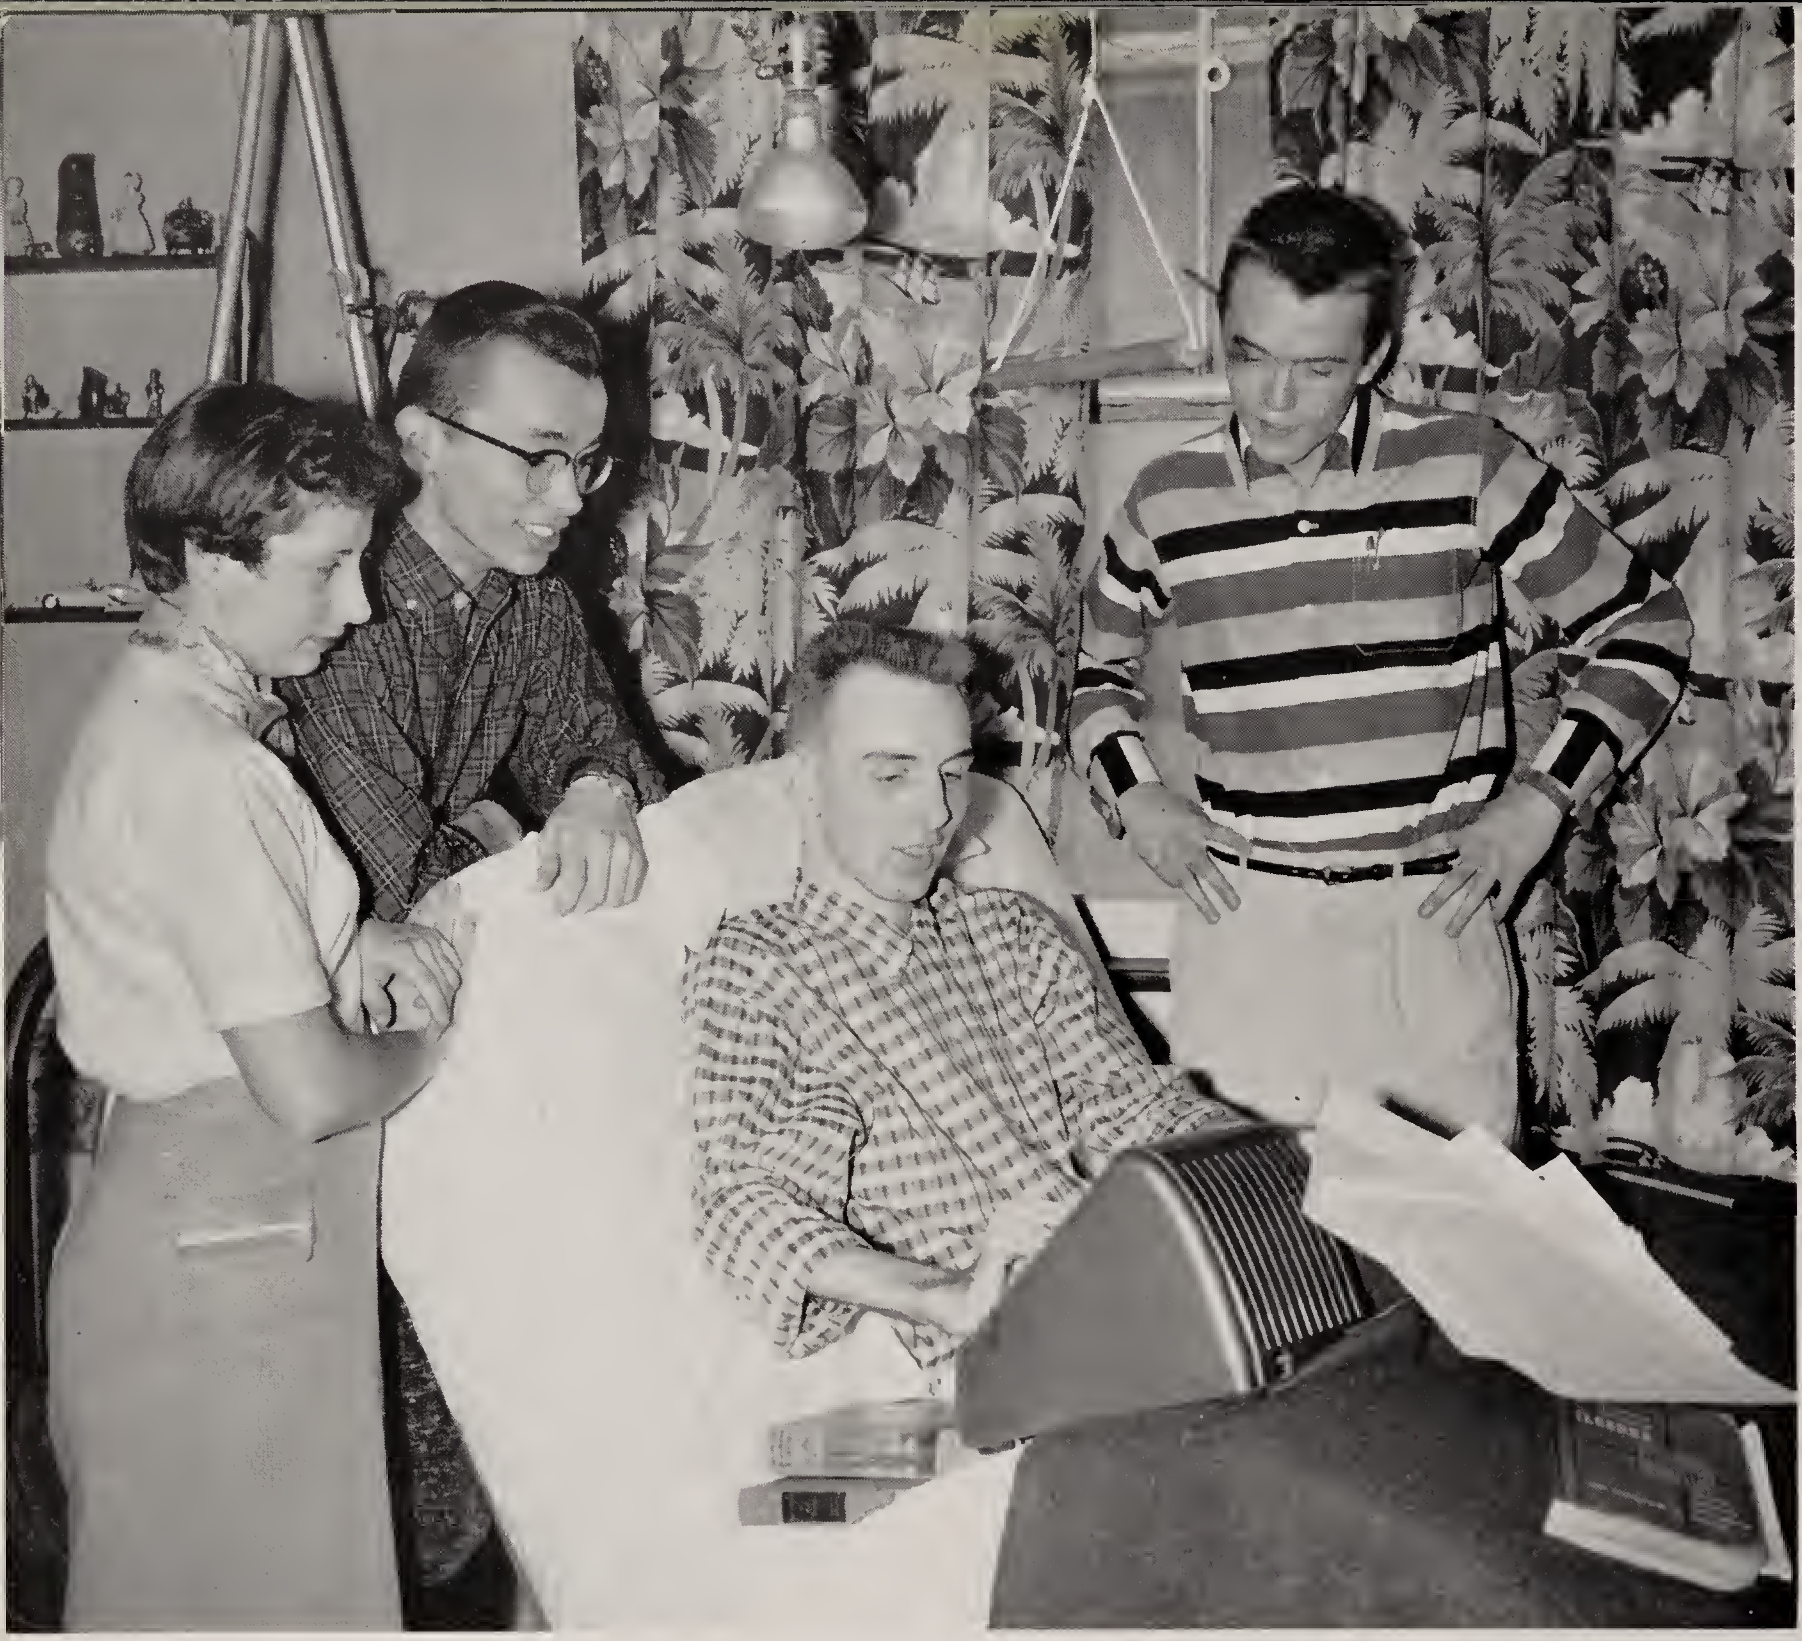
PRESIDE



TOP: Officers of the Senior Class, Margaret Nelson, secretary, Carl Roembke, vice-president, and Jack Barker, president, pay a visit to Bill Pifer at his home. BOTTOM RIGHT: Our sponsors, Mr. Bushong and Mrs. Chausse, became our lighthouse when we were freshmen and guided us out to sea on a safe journey as seniors. They have seen us though success and disappointment with patience and fortitude.

Ever Active Seniors

DURING the summer of his sophomore year, Bill Pifer met with a serious accident while swimming, resulting in an injury to his back. This accident prevented Bill from coming to school; by means of the "magic box" put out by the telephone company, Bill is heard in various classrooms. Such spirit is an inspiration to the entire class.

Eventful Senior Year . . .

LEFT: Bob Haverstick seems quite surprised as the camera singles out his brother George and him at the Senior Banquet. The theme of this year's banquet was "A Toast to the Years," and skits representing different activities in the past year were presented.

A BUSY YEAR BRINGS OUR Events

SCHOOL CAN BE FUN, CAN'T IT? SURELY THERE'S A DANCE, A PLAY, OR SOME MOMENT THAT WILL STAY FRESH IN OUR MEMORIES FOR YEARS TO COME. MAYBE IT'S A DREAMY JUNIOR PROM OR A HAPPY AND GAY SOPHOMORE CARNIVAL. WE WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER THE FUN WE HAD FROM OUR EVENTS AT CENTRAL HIGH.

What Does the Future Hold For All of Us?

SENIOR RECOGNITION Day, the day the seniors wear their caps and gowns for the first time, is a climax to four years of high school. Trophies and scholarships are given to outstanding pupils in various fields and clubs. Athletes, speakers, perfect attenders, and others get their moments of glory. Commencement was June 7, 1956, at Northrop field; 305 seniors were honored.

"I CROWN YOU"—Joyce Gaskill, Crown Bearer Lynnell Bienz and Nancy Rowe watch as the 1955 Prom Queen, Deanna Cook, crowns the '56 Prom Queen, Ellen Magner, in a dramatic moment at the Prom. "Stairway to the Stars" was declared by many to be one of the most highly and cleverly decorated and executed affair in all Central history.

FASCINATING stairs, shimmering stars, and twinkling lights enhanced to loveliness of the cafeteria as youth danced in a dream world come true! Queen Ellen Magner was crowned under a canopy of pink chintz attached to a pink ceiling surrounded by flowers. The queen's court attendants were dressed in pastel colors which were outstanding with the dark blue backdrop.

Carnival Capers

"MAGIC MIDWAY" was the theme of the Sophomore Carnival, staged in the cafeteria, February 22. "Dunk the Doll" was the main attraction, consisting of a slide and a kiddie swimming pool. Laughter and plenty of thrills were the menu for the night. All sophomore home rooms worked together to prepare the Carnival.

'Rock and Roll Year'

FROM "Rock and Roll" to "Calypso Capers," the dance themes have been intriguing this year. But no matter what the theme, or types of music, all Central's dances are right in style. The record dances after basketball games and football games, have attracted hordes of Central enthusiasts. "A Rose and a Baby Ruth," a slow dreamy, record, as well as "Hebe Geebe" with a fast moving rhythm, kept many teens dancing until the clock reached 11:30 p.m. To tie up the year of dances, we have the most exciting dance of all, the "Poor Man's Prom".

Pep Sessions Really 'the Most'

A CENTRAL pep session is really "the most." You never can tell what's going to happen at a pep session. But no matter what you discover, you can bet it's clever and well done.

Star-Studded Video Varieties

GIRLS, FUN, AND MORE GIRLS—this is what a person sees as he watches the fun at Central High School's annual vaudeville, the star-studded show presented by Central's own Speech Department on November 2. This year's "Video Varieties" was, as usual, played to a packed house, since Centralites look forward to this gala event weeks ahead of time. Some of the acts such as "Cool Baby," the girls' chorus line, the "Charleston" routine by Maggie Nelson and Sharon Elliot, and the singing of Ray Kern and many others were certainly proof that Central is indeed not lacking in talent.

REALLY STRUTTING—Martha Knox, Margaret Hughes, Bobbie Jean Thomas, Metrice Beachem, and Willa Beasley make up a chorus line in the Speech Vaudeville.

Time for Special Events

BUSY! BUSY! BUSY! This has been a busy year filled with many special events. The first important event was Central's mock election. The campaigning, registration, and voting were all done according to the political regulations. Then came our annual Thanksgiving Program which inspired us all. This year we were privileged to have Mr. Glen Cunningham, a former track star, come and talk, telling us of some of the hardships he had to overcome. At Christmas the students filled bushel baskets of food, clothing, and toys for the underprivileged in Fort Wayne.

LOWER RIGHT: Mr. Russell Rowe and Miss Esther Thomas, both faculty members, explain to these new freshmen the locker system.

Sorrows, Joy, Elation

THE SECOND semester also had several special events. The annual Easter program was very colorful and uplifting. Then came the days when those hard working students received their pins, letters, and trophies. Letter Day and Senior Recognition Day are happy affairs, but they also make one a little sad as the seniors bid farewell to their four years sorrows and joys. Then there is Distribution Day when each of us receives his Caldron. This is treasured because in its pages are to be found all the friends and wonderful times we have had at Central.

CENTRAL'S REALLY ALIVE WITH Clubs

"HAVE YOU PAID YOUR DUES?" "WHO ARE THE POOR INITIATES TONIGHT?" THESE ARE THE USUAL QUESTIONS THAT BECOME PART OF OUR REGULAR CONVERSATIONS WHEN WE JOIN ONE OR MAYBE MORE OF CENTRAL'S MANY CLUBS. CLUBS, WHILE THEY HELP TO FORM OUR WAYS AND OUR HABITS IN SCHOOL, PROVIDE MUCH FUN AND FELLOWSHIP THROUGH THE SCHOOL YEARS.

After-school Artists

MOBILES, copper enameling, still life, Old English lettering, Fire Prevention posters, and dailey life drawings are some of the things art students at Central have done this year. Some classes made trips to the Art Museum. This gives them more art appreciation and new ideas. At Christmas the club made mobiles. These, decorated with metal and wire, were interesting and original. A modern Christmas tree of wire was made by students. There are many things to do in art. It has long been known that Central turns out some of the best in the field.

Let's Tour Outdoors

THE FIRST and third Thursday of every month thirty members of the Biology Club, formerly known as the Nature Club, and their advisor, Miss Iva Spangler, meet in Room 308 to discuss topics of biological nature. Biology Club was organized to stimulate interest in the out-of-doors. The members of Biology are divided into four groups, in which they study their interests in trees, insects, wild flowers, and birds. The members of the club in their groups go on field trips in which they gain valuable information. The special highlight of the year for Biology Club was the dance, "December Dawn", November 30.

BOOSTER CLUB is one of the oldest clubs at Central, but the members are young and active. Some of the highlights of the year are the Christmas Banquet, spring picnic, an annual dance, and the annual Valentine Pep Session, this year, "Mother Goose in Wonderland." Selling Cokes, candy, hot dogs at the basketball and football games is only one of the many money-making projects of the club. The purpose of the club is to keep up good school spirit and citizenship among the

Mock Trial, Voting Exhibition, Christmas

"DON'T SHOOT till you see the whites of their eyes!" Such may be one of the quotations of a hopeful initiate of Anthony Wayne Club. The club was organized on November 14, 1945, and has had many successful groups of students in the club. Under the advisorship of Mr. Clifford Richards, the officers have executed many well-planned meetings. Work is never far away for Anthony Wayners because they are kept busy cleaning up his-

who do a fine job of putting on heavy schedule of good plays. The National Thespian Society, composed of 38 members, was organized in 1953. The productions of the year were "Mayor for a Day," a delightful comedy; the Junior Play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," full of thrills and chills; the Christmas play, "A Child is Born," a reminder of the real meaning of the Christmas season; "Meanwhile Back at the Ranch," written by a Central student, Ball Baldwin; and the startling comedy, the Senior play, "You Can't Take it With You." The social highlights of the year were cast parties.

Like the Stage? Try Out!

WHENEVER plays are given, we praise not only the actors but also the back-stage crew. All have worked hard and are essential to the production of the show. Since most of our experienced actors and actresses will graduate, there is a place for many beginners on Central's stage. Mrs. Lee, director, is trying this year to give more people a chance to be in the plays. These people make points to qualify for sweaters, trophies and awards. Some new beginners were seen as dancers in the play "Meanwhile Back at the Ranch."

PLANNING—Miss Lebamoff, advisor, and the girls get in a huddle to discuss the coming Valentine party.

In Friendship We Grow: Mind, Body, Spirit

FRIENDSHIP CLUB helps girls grow in body, mind, and spirit. Such is the purpose of the club, says Miss Marie Labamoff, club sponsor. Three special work projects keep members busy through the year: the sale of senior name cards, Freshman Party, and the Christmas Party. The social highlights of the year are the Y-Teen "Tournament Twirl," the Y-Teen Spring Banquet, and "Hanging of the Greens," at the YWCA, which opened the Christmas season. Spiritual values are dominant in this fine group.

TO ENCOURAGE INTEREST in business occupations for students at Central was the reason the Future Business Leaders of America Club was formed in December of 1953. To date there are 77 members in FBLA, which meets every third Thursday of the month. The first semester president was Joan Weingart. Each year the special social highlights are a dance and the reception for alumnae of the Business Department. The special work project of the year was keeping up-to-date the addresses of former graduates of the club.

"SALVETE! Salvi et laeti semper sitis!" This is just one of the peppy greetings heard as the Latin Club members assemble to hold their monthly meetings, the second Wednesday of each month. The Latin Club, organized in 1933, provides social times together, and occasions for singing Latin songs and playing Latin games. This year the club held its Christmas party and gift exchange and a potluck in the spring. The club advisor is Miss Vera Baumgartner, Latin teacher.

Need a Book? Stop by the Library and Look

IN LIBRARIES can be found creatures called "bookworms." Some of Central's "bookworms" are organized into the Library Service Club. "The club's purpose is to acquire a happier, friendlier group of co-workers for library assistance," said Mrs. Dorothy Vallance, advisor and school librarian. The social highlights for this year were the Christmas party and the Year-end Party. "Library workers learn much about arrangement of books in a library, best references to use, library practice, and information they can use in later life," said Mrs. Vallance.

HOW ARE your math grades? Are you interested in math? If so, possibly your interest led you to join the Math Club. You probably took part in the Math Club Dance or Birthday Party. Every mathematician should join Math Club because mathematics plays an important part in our everyday lives. Good attendance at the semi-monthly meetings reflects the good interest in math. Math Club is the oldest club now existing in Central.

MODERN Music Masters is a music club promoting music in the school. Some of its projects are the Piano and Choir Contest and a big candy sale. These projects raise money to buy music and send the Band on its annual trip. Membership is limited to musicians who excel in performance and who boost the department with zeal and enthusiasm. To qualify for Three M's one must be a sophomore and must have a "B" average in Band and nothing lower than a "C" average in the other subjects.

For Speakers, NFL

THE NATIONAL Forensic League, founded in 1929, was established to honor superior performance in speech, and to improve the poise, personality, and speaking ability of its members. To enter NFL 25 points are required. Points are earned by speaking in various outside events, or participating in the contests. Besides the intramural cup contest and interschool forensic League contest, the events of the school year given by the Speech Department are the annual Speech Vaudeville. "Video Varieties," their dance, and the NFL picnic. NFL also supplies speakers for adult organizations, grade schools, and pep sessions.

TWENTY members of the Rifle Club, affiliated with the National Rifle Association, meet every other week. When shooting on the range, one group meets one week another the next. Each member shoots up to thirty shots. The NRA has set up a whole series of junior qualification courses. Members receive attractive awards in the form of diplomas, lapel pins, medals, or felt emblems. To earn qualification ratings a member has to fire at targets on the home range until he accumulates enough targets with the scores equal to or better than "par" score specified for that rating.

THE PRESS CLUB members, with Mr. Robert Dellinger as advisor, experienced an eventful year full of fun and activity. The picnic in the fall, the plans made for the dance, the May Breakfast, the Spring Press Banquet, and the much anticipated initiations were some of the happenings of the year. The Press Club is for pupils who have put in enough time and work on either the Caldron or Spotlight to earn the honor. ## We Serve but Never Meet

WHAT'S THIS, a club with no meetings? That's correct. The Service workers help teachers check papers, run errands, and handle many small items. They file absence slips and take attendance in study halls. The workers are there to help the teachers in any way they can. Yes, they're on the job every day. These energetic students get no pay, but earn points toward pins which are awarded on Recognition Day. The club has no officers or special project except that of being efficient in their job and service to the school.

Democracy and Youth

THE MOST important policy organization at Central is the Student Council. It is advised by Mr. Still, their sponsor. They have done a lot to better things for everyone at Central. Members, chosen for this fine group by the home rooms, meet in the Lewis Room on alternate Mondays. Student Council consists of 63 members, with a fine staff of officers. The big projects for the year were their dance, the courtesy contest, and the polishing of trophies.

High Stepping, Fancy

THEY STEP high, but gracefully; perform marvelously, and with precision; are proud, but modest. Yes, to us students at Central, those Marching Tigerettes are all this and much more. Because of their very excellent performances, they have proven, beyond a doubt, that they possess outstanding talent, and they are now considered as one of Central's major attractions. To become a Tigerette a girl must pass certain qualifications plus six weeks training under the supervision of Mr. Elbert Stodden. You may have heard the Concert Choir, Girls' Choir, Boys' Choir, or one of the special groups, which are the Girls' Trio, Sextette, and Centralaires, preparing for one of their many public appearances. This year the Choir has given many concerts at Central. At Christmas they sang at the Republican Women's Club, Christ Child Festival, our annual Christmas basket program, and caroled in Central's halls. They also presented our annual Thanksgiving program as well as several music concerts during the year in the gym. The Girls' Trio, the Sextette, and the Centralaires have entertained for many banquets, and have been on television and radio for many different programs. Walla Woronchuk has represented the choir with a Ukranian dance as well as solo work. Pat Deihl and Ruth Ann Sprunger have done outstanding work as accompanists. Many students also represented the Choir individually at the District and State Music Contests.

MIXED QUARTET—Bill Isenhouer, Walla Woronchuk, Alma Grey, and Vladimir Cherniak, make up a mixed quartet that sings for various groups and at our concerts at Central GIRLS TRIO—Harmonizing to make beautiful music are Beverly Zimmerman, Margene Gaylor, and Nancy Winners.

Strike Up the Band, the Best in the Land!

THE BAND under the direction of Mr. Elbert Stodden is a growing organization at Central. They are here at 7:30 in the morning to practice and spend many long hours at home preparing for their many snack concerts, regular concerts, and other activities. They have their annual band trip every year. This year they went to Gary; on their way they gave several concerts and entered a contest at Griffin, Indiana. They add zest and enthusiasm at our basketball and football games, and our pep sessions. They are well paid, for all of this, by all the honors they win. These people not only serve their school but they gain appreciation in music which they can use the rest of their lives.

BOTTOM RIGHT: What is a game or a pep session without our Band? Our Band boosts our morale to "raise the roof" of the Coliseum.

BAND TRIP—Out of their uniforms at last, Band members relax on the bus while returning from their trip to Michigan City last spring, 1956, after several concert appearances.

ALL ABOARD—Paul Buerkle, Larry Wilcoxson, Dick Bentz, Mrs. Alford, Mrs. Graft, Bill Thomas, and "Skip" Rasor are getting ready to leave on the band trip to Michigan City.

"THE LIFE you save may be your own." The Junior Red Cross, one of the most important clubs at Central, has undertaken as one of their main projects of the year to encourage blood donors to give their blood to save lives. The Junior Red Cross is affiliated with the American Red Cross. This club provides excellent training for future nurses and homemakers. Each and every student has a chance to give and to support the Red Cross.

Our Varsity Club...with Manly Firmness

"LETTER RIP" was the two-years-old Varsity Club's dance of the year. The club was organized in 1955 under the advisorship of Mr. Murray Mendenhall, Jr. Mr. Byard Hey, new Freshman Team coach, is the advisor this year. The club was organized for the purpose of furthering athletics, the spirit among the pupils, and among the athletes. It also helps the social well-being of the athletes.

Turmoil plus Chaos Equals One Swell Caldron

"SEE YOU tonight at the Caldron office." So many times a day those echoes can be heard in the hall. The sounds that vibrate from the Salt Mines after school can hardly be termed "echoes," as the staff gets to work. During the year there are the many problems of money management for the business staff to cope with while the editorial staff has the problems of drawing up a "dummy," taking pictures, and developing words into stories for the book. The Caldron staff works every day in order to produce a book that is a picture of the past year. A Caldron is a memory book that is bound to tax each person's memories in the years to come. Staff members learn much from staff work.

TOP RIGHT: Marjorie Honeick, Marcia Jones, Sandra Jones, Beckie Williamson, and Ruth Ann Sprunger are getting their assignments two weeks in advance of the final deadline.

MONDAY . . . the ending of a busy week

MONDAY for the Spotlight staff is the ending of a busy week. All copy and stories have to be in, copyread, and headed. The editors make sure that all of the assignments are out. Copy is then sent out to the Press to be made ready so it can be printed for Friday's paper.

BOTTOM LEFT: Spotlight bookheads make a check of their records after school to find out how many papers go to each home room.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Judy Zimmerman, Lois Olson, Marcia Jones, and Jeanine Imbody are writing heads for the next Spotlight.

ADVERTISING MANAGER

AD CHECKING—Doug Bateman and Mike Pearson check the list of advertisements that are to go in the Spotlight the coming week.

GETTING TIPS—Connie Geiger and Carl Roembke are shown here interviewing Mr. Spuller in his office to get tips for the coming huddle.

TUESDAY . . . proofreading, final touches

TUESDAY is a real big day at the Spotlight office. Layouts are beginning to shape up and it's the big day for proofreading. The editor gets news notes from Mr. Spuller and checks for emergency copy for the week's paper. The managing editor checks on all of his assignments to see if the pupils understand what they are to do. The advertising staff strives to get their quota of 130 inches for a four-page paper and 240 inches for a six-page paper.

PREDICTING—Sports Editors Richard Kelley and Mike Altekruse predict results of coming games and make sports tip sheet.

LAYING OUT—Doug Bateman, Dale Boone, Pat Craft and Mike Pearson on the Spotlight ad staff plan spaces for ads for a coming paper.

THURSDAY, Big Day

THURSDAY is a big day for the Spotlight editorial staff. The assigning editors and chiefs get into a huddle with advisor to plan a paper two weeks away. Copy for a later issue is also sent out to the press. Near the end of the school day the Spotlights are delivered and folded, waiting to be distributed in home rooms on Friday.

Big Day . . FRIDAY

FRIDAY IS Spotlight Day for all subscribers, who eagerly turn to the "Edge," the sports page, "Debbie," and the front page news stories, too! Sixty-four agents get their Spotlights before home room and deliver to all cooperating members in their rooms. But for the staff—there is no end. Already the next Spotlight is well underway. Copy is being read. Ads are being charged. Like housekeeping, the Spotlight is never done.

Trips, Parties, Escape from Hard Work

THE SPOTLIGHT workers work hard, but also find time for fun. There are usually coke parties everyday, the fall picnic, cake cuttings, and the Publications Banquet sponsored by the Press Club. The Spotlight publishes The Tiger Rag annually, and special issues of the Spotlight. Staff members from both publication departments make a fall trip to Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana, to the annual meeting of the Indiana High School Press Association.

GAA Means Fun

GAA is one of the most progressive clubs at Central. There are 35 members in the club, which meets every third Wednesday of the month. The officers are Carol Owens, president; Betty McGee, vice-president; Jessie Minor, secretary; and Judy Cooper, point recorder. The purposes of GAA are to provide fellowship for the girls from the different classes; to promote good sportsmanship; and to give them opportunity to participate in basketball, kinball, volley ball, softball, dancing, tumbling, and swimming. The special social highlights of the year are the spring banquet, the picnic, and the Christmas party. The special project of GAA is their annual candy sale. There are many trophies and awards presented each year, including class and individual trophies. The different class trophies are the Meier basketball trophy, the Smith-Gerdom volley ball trophy, the Mueller tumbling trophy, the Bixby softball trophy, and the Fleckenstein swimming trophy. The individual trophies are the Merit Plaque and the Hardick sportsmanship trophy.

Strategy Team Sparks Tigers

HAVE YOU ever wondered just how much time is put in by a coach during one season? These men who are the brains behind a team put in many hours after school to help better the name of Central. When most of us are enjoying a vacation, the coaching staff are hard at work with their teams, getting them ready for that big football season, that holiday basketball tourney, or maybe that big track meet which comes up right after spring vacation. This year's coaching staff had one change from the '55-'56 staff. This was the replacement of Byard Hey for Murray Mendenhall. Hey captured all but one game in leading his frosh basketball team to a 19-1 record. Varsity basketball coach, Herb Banet did a fine job with the mighty Tigers leading them to a 11-9 season. "Snitz" Snider guided his gridiron team to a creditable season. Reserve basketball coach Bob Armstrong made a fine showing for Central after a rugged start. In the area of track and cross country, Coach Williams developed talent worthy of good competition. And Paul Bienz did a fine job as assistant coach in all fields.

Two Miles? Easy!

CROSS COUNTRY, a two-mile run, one of the most rugged sports in the life of a high school boy, was well represented by a fine Tiger team in 1956. Coach "Pete" Williams started the season with only four returning lettermen from the '55 season. John Kelso was the most consistent of the 1955 campaign. The long distance men ended the season with a good record of six wins and two losses, and captured first in the sectional. The four returning lettermen on the squad were Hank Sanders, Rodger Sarrazin, Bob Brown, and Bob Hawkins. This year's club will again have four returning lettermen to carry the banner of Central. Although it is not a spectator sport, cross country is a rising activity at Central. Coach Williams will welcome more and more candidates to run in this challenging event.

Speed Snaps Victory String

WATCH THAT BOY over in lane three! He sure can run those hurdles, and he's only a freshman. These words are always typical around our school in the spring. The Tigers always have one of the best track teams in the Summit City, and carry high the Central banner, even though only a few fans came out to see these fine athletes in action. Last year our Tigers had a record of five wins and three losses in track. Pete Williams had several members back this year from last year's fine club including John Kelso, Jerry Burch, and Bob Hawkins. These boys helped to add many honors to the credit of Central.

DASHING IN—John Kelso snaps the string at 50.85 for victory in the 440-dash, in the South Side dual meet, April 13, 1956.

RELAY—Jerry Dickey hands the baton to Bob Brown in a one-mile relay held at North Side, while two opponents from Lima take the lead and head to the finish line.

'Beat 'em, Tigers, Beat 'em!'

"One, two, three, four!" So, goes one of the familiar yells of Central during the basketball season. This year's young experienced team ended the regular season play with a ten win and a eight loss record. Then the "Banetmen" came through with two wins in the Sectional play before getting defeated by the City and Sectional Champs, South Side, for an overall record of 12 wins and 9 losses. This record really doesn't show the talent of the mighty Tigers, for in four of these losses the total number of points was only 16. The main highlights of the "56-57" basketball season was the City Series race with our Tigers taking second place behind the Archers. In this city series race the Tigers lost to the Archers twice by the grand total of only 9 points. Another feature of this season was the appearance of one of the Tiger players, John Kelso, on the third all-American high school team, one of the highest awards a player can receive. Many said that during the past season that the Tiger spirit fell off, but did it? Whenever the going got rough for the team, the Tiger fans spirit got aroused and boosted the team through many hardships. The honored name of Central was also carried by the Tiger reserve team, who had the best spirit a team could have. And to our frosh team, nice going for the 20 wins, one loss season. We're proud of you Tigers, for the fine season you gave us.

Husky Pigskin Paraders

HIP ONE! Hip two! Hip three! These words can be heard twice a day midway through August as Coach "Snitz" Snider and crew are sweating their hearts out for the honored name of Central. This year's team had only four returning starters from last year's fairly good team. Although the club was a young team, they had spirit as good as any team Central ever had. Highlights of the four-win five-loss season was the starting of an annual project, the Football Jamboree, which will be carried on every year. All of the city schools and New Haven took part in these events with our Tigers whipping North Side. Another highlight of this season was the showing they made against the Number 1 team in the state, Richmond. Although beaten 26-7, our Tigers fought their hearts out and kept the Red Devils on their toes the entire game. One of the main problems of the '56 season was getting the fans out to see the game. No definite reason was given for the poor attendance at the city games. The only reason the officials could come up with, after much discussion, was that the fans were just too busy to support the rugged game of football. This year's team had no individual stars in it, but if credit were to go to one player, it would have to go to Willie Ware, senior quarterback, for keeping the team calm and poised at all times.

Our Unsung Stars Behind Sports Scene

WHO are the people behind the scenes that make our athletic events possible? Included in these are our cheerleaders, who keep the school body steady when the heat is on. What would we do if there were no ticket takers and ushers at the game? These tasks are filled in by our faculty and students. The student manager plays a big part in equipping our team for the games. Without these boys the coaches would have a considerable amount of work on their hands. The officials at the score table keep time, records of fouls, and correct scores.

Swift, Shifty Racquet Boys

TWO OF the minor sports of Central, tennis and golf are now in their third year at Central. Although these "guys" get hardly any recognition at all, they practice every night after school and have a meet once a week. Two fine coaches, Mr. Robert Dellinger and Mr. W. H. McNeely, could easily be called the creators of these two sports at Central. This first year saw the tennis team winning not a single meet; then in its second year with several members back from the first year's team, Coach Dellinger piloted his team to a three win four loss season. Last fall Mr. McNeely left Central to teach at another city school, but Mr. Louis Craney volunteered his time to keep golf at Central.
